ORGANIZING AND DELIVERING A PERSUASIVE SPEECH

LET'S WARM UP!

- The class will be divided into five groups. Read the following scenario: famous world personalities are in a hot air balloon. The balloon is quickly losing heat, and only one safety parachute is available to save a person.
- With your groupmates, think of a famous personality from any field or discipline you think contributed much to the world. Then, think of various reasons why your chosen personality has to receive the parachute.
- Choose a representative who will assume the persona of your chosen personality. All representatives will stand in front of the class.
- They then have to present their arguments. Based on the arguments, the teacher will choose who will get the parachute.
