Meet Selena Cisneros, a young woman grappling with a recurring nightmare that seems to follow her every step. As she delves into the haunting visions, she uncovers a shocking connection to a gruesome murder that occurred in her childhood home decades ago. Determined to confront her past, Selena embarks on a quest for answers, only to find herself ensnared in a web of lies, secrets, and the lingering fragments of a tragedy that cast a long shadow over her present.

As Selena's search for truth intensifies, she encounters a cast of enigmatic characters, each with their own secrets and motives. There's her enigmatic neighbor, Mrs. Hawthorne, a recluse with an uncanny knowledge of Selena's past. Detective Jake Rourke, a seasoned investigator, who suspects that Selena's nightmares may hold the key to solving the cold case that has haunted him for years. And the enigmatic Dr. Emily Carter, a sleep specialist who believes that Selena's dreams are manifestations of a repressed trauma.

With each chilling revelation, Selena's grip on reality grows more tenuous. The lines between her dreams and waking life blur as she uncovers the horrifying truth behind the murder that has haunted her family for generations. As danger closes in, Selena must confront the demons of her past to save herself and her loved ones from a fate worse than death.
