The journey begins with understanding the fundamental structure of a plot. Perkins breaks down the elements that form the backbone of any narrative, including exposition, rising action, climax, falling action, and resolution. You'll learn how to craft a compelling hook that draws readers in and keeps them hooked until the very end.

Section 2: The Power of Character

The Conflict Process

Characters are the lifeblood of any story. In "From Plot to Narrative," Perkins guides you through the intricate process of character development. You'll discover how to create believable, relatable characters with complex motivations, goals, conflicts, and arcs of growth.

Section 3: The Art of Scene

Using Movement and Action in Dialogue

1. Add mood via background action

What's happening in the background during a fight or romantic exchange?

2. Include movement to keep scenes active

What action happens during dialogue to keep the scene moving?

3. Create tension using interruption

How can unexpected movement or action surprise us mid-dialogue?

4. Reveal character dynamics

How do characters' gestures in dialogue show their relationship?

5. Underscore emotion

What movements and actions in dialogue will reveal feelings?

6. Reveal personalities

What do characters' movements or actions in dialogue say about them?
